What's Reach Out Lakota? We're your local pantry serving food and clothing year-round to families in need in West Chester and Liberty Townships.

What is Corporate Food Fight? It's a fun way for local businesses to compete for the title of, "Heavyweight Champion Against Hunger!" Businesses register to participate, run a food drive, and the team that brings in the heaviest donation wins!

Why a summer food drive? In the summer our needs increase and our donations decrease. Why? Needs increase because children that were being fed lunch and/or breakfast at school are now looking for those meals at home. Donations decrease for many reasons, just one of which is that people tend to think about food needs more during the winter holiday season.

What if I have a small team and can't donate much? No worries! Every donation helps. All participants are recognized on our website and social media as being generous donors.

When is the competition? The competition runs during the month of June. You can choose to collect for any amount of time that works for you.

Can you help with marketing materials? Yes! We'll provide a packet to you after you register. We'll include a standard paper size poster in pdf format that you can print and post around your site along with a tip sheet and other goodies.

Can I donate money instead of goods? Yes! We'll count every $1 donated the same as 3 pounds of food. Donations can be mailed to us or done online. Just be sure to tell your team that they need to list your company name with the donation so your group gets credit.

Can I donate without registering? Yes! You can either donate at a participating business to help their drive, or donations of food and clothing can be left 24/7 in the sheds at the rear of our building at 6561 Station Road in West Chester.
